BOLD BOOMERS.

The Striking Michigan Mill Employees,
Eight Hundred and Eighty Strong.

Parade the Streets of East Saginaw
and Stop the Mill Wheels
There.

WITH A BAND.

An Immense Labor Demonstration.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., July 10.—An advance guard of striking mill men, 680 strong, arrived here this morning and paraded the streets, escorted by 200 storekeepers and a band of music. All the mills at this end of the river are running, but will shut down as soon as employees intimate a desire to quit. The Tittabawassee River company will be forced in any event to shut down to-morrow. The company will be unable to take care of the logs. This will throw 500 boom employees out of work.

At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the procession of 1,000 strikers, escorted by two bands, marched through the streets, crossed the river and are shutting down mills on the east side.

TROUBLE AT CLEVELAND.

CLEVELAND, July 10.—The entire police force, except the specials sworn in for extra duty, have gone to the Eighteenth ward. The city authorities have learned there is to be a parade of strikers in that vicinity this afternoon and to prevent further destruction to property they have deemed it best to mass the police in that quarter.

CLEVELAND, July 10.—There are no indications of trouble to-day. The strikers have called a meeting for three o'clock this afternoon, in the Peach Orchard. It is the general feeling that the trouble is over.

HOOSIER BUDGET.

A Fatal Shooting—Man Killed.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 10.—A Nova special from Seip, Jennings county, says: "Daniel Carnes accused Heulen Miller of stealing his chickens, which was resisted. Both men used pistols and are said to be fatally injured, by the physicians."

George Koerner, married and with four children, was run over by an engine on the Belt road to-day and killed.

A SUDDEN SLIP.

A Most Disastrous Land Slide.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

LITTLETON, N. H., July 10.—A great land slide occurred on Cherry Mountain, near Jefferson depot, this morning. The point known as Owl's Head was stripped of a forest two miles long and fifteen rods wide. The debris extended half a mile from the base of the mountain, smothering in a barn belonging to Oscar Stanley, killing cattle and breaking both of Stanley's legs. He was milking at the time. The slide was caused by heavy rains.

WASHINGTON.

Yellow Fever Breaks Out at New Orleans.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Dr. Hamilton says there are a number of yellow fever cases at New Orleans. He has not received any official information in regard to the matter, but is investigating.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The following telegram was received this morning by the commissioner of agriculture:

DOUGLAS CITY, Kans., July 8.

Hon. Norman D. Town, Commissioner of Agriculture.

Nearly 50,000 cattle on the drive from Texas to the Pan Handle of Texas and Colorado have been forcibly stopped and prevented from passing over the common trail for such cattle through the Indian country, the Cherokee strip and No Man's Land, and are now stopped there by an armed band of men in the pay of a rival cattle interest. These cattle comprise the herds of J. R. Becker, of 7,000; of Pugsley Bros. & Dowling, of 9,000; J. W. Driskell, of 12,000; H. S. Holly, of 7,000; and John J. Little, of 6,000, all citizens of Colorado, Missouri, Kansas and Texas. These cattle were purchased for speedy delivery in Colorado in the Pan Handle, and the contracts for which are now expiring or have expired. All these cattle are sound and healthy and from a distinct clear of disease. To further and stopping the cattle there criminal proceedings have been instituted by a complaint sworn to by an irresponsible party, at the suggestion of this rival interest, and we have been doing our best to get a trial and have the sale disposed of. We are law abiding citizens, and started our cattle north with a full knowledge of all the requirements of the quarantine regulations of the several states and territories, especially of the state of Colorado—the only state or territory having quarantine regulations in which we proposed entering, and we were careful to govern ourselves so that we would not violate the laws of that state. The opposition is determined to prevent and stop the progress of all of these herds, law or no law, and by force. Other herds from 400 miles further to the south, from Texas, had previously passed over the same trail without communicating any disease, and these herds were cattle from the same districts. They had been coming over the same trail for years, and about which no complaints had been heretofore made. We claim that this unjustifiable interference with legitimate business and interstate commerce is ruinous to every owner concerned, and involving an extra expense of $500 a day, besides the source of loss and contracts, and with only a hostile business interest to subvert and benefit. With no public purpose to serve, we beg that this may receive your immediate attention and that under the large power given you, you may direct the marshal or attorney of the district of Kansas to see that the herds are not detained, but have the right, not only to complete their journey, but safe conduct from all hostile parties. You will know what to do better than we suggest. All we want is relief at once, that we may be protected as we have the right to demand and expect that we may not be badgered and pestered for private ends. We are threatened that we shall not go through the obstructions made by fences put up in the Indian country, the Cherokee strips, or No Man's Land, regardless of the good condition of our cattle. We apply to you as the proper officer from whom to obtain speedy justice and deliverance, and if this request should have been made to any other officer than yourself we would thank you to aid us in preserving it and procuring the desired relief.

To-day Charles Knott, a shoemaker, entered the house of George Morris and asked Mrs. Morris to return a photograph which he had given the family. Mrs. Morris turned to get the picture and as she did so Knott drew a revolver and shot her twice, the first ball taking effect in her head and the second passing through her left lung. Knott then blew out his brains, dying instantly. Mrs. Morris is not expected to live through the night. Knott is believed to have been insane.

Young Mr. Hutter was arraigned and gave bail for his appearance when the circuit court meets.

The Pall Mall "Gazette" to Submit
Proof of the Published
Vices

To Cardinal Manning and a Committee

Cardinal Manning to Look Into the Vices.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, England, July 10.—The excitement over the Pall Mall Gazette revelations continues without abatement. The windows and doorways of the Gazette's publication office are barricaded and police are in control of surrounding roads. Cardinal Manning has accepted a proposition made by the proprietors of the Pall Mall Gazette to submit a complete proof of all the revelations, including every name and detail to a party of responsible men to include the cardinal and Hon. Samuel Morley, the examiners to have the privilege of reporting to the public upon the affair as they may deem best.

LONDON, July 9.—The chief director of the Pall Mall Gazette in answer to an inquiry in regard to the commission through which the revelations were obtained writes of the whole matter as follows:

"The investigation began May 24 and the work was unremitting to date. The commission had valuable assistance from the Salvation Army, from the London commission for the suppression of traffic in English girls and from the vast experience of Miss Josephine Butler. The commission was composed of members of the Gazette's staff and act independent of the police. The home office deprecated on official grounds allowing the journalists to interview the police. The commission applied to the archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of London and Cardinal Manning for advice and these great authorities on morals, while deprecating the risk involved in the commission's task, all warmly supported its object. Ready help was accorded to the commission from Catholic and Congregational clergymen, also from the minors, the joint protection commission, the white ribbon army, the society for prevention of cruelty to children, the London City mission, the reformatory, the refuge and rescue society, the pinnacles ladies association and the moral reform union. The commission visited all the hospitals, homes and refuges where harbor is given to the unfortunate. The inmates readily gave all the information in their power, most of the revelations, however, were obtained through interviews with everybody, high and low, likely to have information, from Lord Dalhousie to Mrs. Jeffreys was subjected to an interview by some member of the commission. Mrs. Jeffreys shed a flood of light upon the whole subject under investigation.

Thirty newspaper vendors who had been arrested for selling copies of the Pall Mall Gazette were assigned before the lord mayor to-day. The city solicitor in presenting cases against the prisoners charged them with publicly selling obscene literature and said he had marked for the courts perusal the passage in the Gazette's articles upon which the charge was based. He must, he said, decline to read the passages in open court and said he thought that the repetition of these objectionable statements with little alteration, daily indicated no good object. The solicitor said he would require further time to consider what charge to formulate against the prisoners. The lord mayor said he thought it would be better to await the decision of the government, which had before it for consideration the same case.

Paris, July 9. Paris is excited this evening over a horrible boulevard tragedy just reported by the police.

The architect, Caudray, although married and having children, maintained a liaison with Mme. Bessier, the wife of a shopkeeper on the boulevard Voltaire, and who had an amiable husband and dutiful daughters. The lovers quarreled and to-day during the shopkeeper's absence from his place of business Caudray called upon Mme. Bessier and with a pistol shot her dead. He then ended his own life by putting a bullet through his heart. M. Bessier soon afterward returned to his shop and stumbled over the dead bodies. He had never believed the stories he had heard of his wife's infidelity and the revelation came upon him so suddenly that his mind broke down and he fled from the scene a raving maniac, yelling his shame up and down the boulevard Voltaire. When the police overpowered him, he made them understand, and the corpses were taken away from the shop. It is thought that M. Bessier will never recover his reason.

PASSENGERS IN DANGER.

An Accident to the Engine of a Wabash Express Train Im-perils Many Lives.

The passengers on the Atlantic express on the Wabash road, due here at 7 p. m., had a narrow escape last evening one mile west of Wabash. A connecting-rail on the engine snapped in two, destroying the cab and breaking a large hole in the boiler from which the steam issued in such quantities that John Glenn, the engineer, could not reach his reverse lever, but was forced to hang out on the gangway. At a terrific speed the engine passed through Wabash, and it seemed when a short curve at the station was reached the engine would go into the ditch. Fortunately this was passed in safety and half a mile east the engineer entered the cab and reversed the locomotive, bringing the train to a standstill. It was the most exciting runaway ever experienced on the Wabash and Mr. Glenn's life hung on a slender thread, not to think of the peril of the passengers who stood breathlessly awaiting a plunge into the ditch.

GENERAL GRANT

Passes a Quiet Night, and is in a Humorous Mood.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

Mr. McGRATH, July 10.—Soon after 11 o'clock last night General Grant was asleep. At 3 o'clock this morning rain fell in torrents with thunder and lightning. The general slept through the storm and until 4 o'clock, when Dr. Douglas awakened him to give food and treatment. "It has been raining very heavily," remarked the physician to the general as the latter was taking his nourishment this morning. The patient glanced up in some surprise, but upon again being assured of the fact he said to the doctor "You must have been dreaming. I heard no rain and I have been here all the time." Dr. Douglas enjoyed thoroughly the humor and the rally. From 4 o'clock to nearly 7 and the sick man slept and the morning has been passed by him in his room. The physician says his pulse is of fair volume at eighty, but not so good as it had been up to three days ago. The doctor believes his patient has not recovered the strength lost on Wednesday.

PLATLY DENIED.

The statement made in Boston and Chicago papers that Mrs. Grant was sharing with Mark Twain in the construction of a bust of General Grant have pained the general's family. They are, however, flatly contradicted by Carl Gohardt, the sculptor, who this morning was a caller at the Grant cottage.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS
As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder.
"I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances."
E. G. LAY, Ph.D.
"It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure."
H. A. MORT, Ph.D.
"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, soda, or any other injurious substance."
HENRY MORTON, Ph.D., President of Stevens Institute of Technology.
"I have analyzed a package of Royal Baking Powder. The materials of which it is composed are pure and wholesome."
B. JARA HAYES, State Assayer, Mass.
The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, New York, and at State Fairs throughout the country.
No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and understanding endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Boards of Health all over the world.
NOTE.—The above illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Schedler.
A pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Schedler only proves what every discerning consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair-minded person of these facts.
While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous.

Master Mechanic Morris emphatically denies that the Wabash employees are required to sign an agreement to relinquish membership in labor organizations. WILL THEY STRIKE?

A Monster Meeting of the Wabash Men Called for This Evening—The Mammoth Plans of the Wabash Company Here.

When the Wabash men issued from the shops at noon, committees of the Wabash strikers, now locked out, met them on every corner and invited them to a monster meeting of the Wabash assembly at Driscoll's hall to-night. The purpose of the meeting, as near as can be ascertained, is to effect a general strike on the Wabash road, in order to reinstate the old employees and restore the shops at Moberly, Mo., now closed.

C. A. Conghlin, the Missouri orator, who, by the way, is said to be a Methodist preacher, is urging the scheme, but it is not possible for him to succeed, in view of the fact that the Wabash company now employ 218 men here, including sixty-five strangers. O. J. Wilson, the assistant master mechanic, says the Wabash company has never employed as many men since seven years ago. Besides Master Mechanic Morris says it is the intention of the company to enlarge its works here and erect additional shops west of Fairfield avenue, beside the new road house. When Mr. Wade and the British bond holders were here the other day, they examined an 80 acre farm east of town, and propose to shortly purchase it for yard facilities, such as the Pittsburgh road has. The shops at Moberly and other places, where the company experienced trouble, will not again be opened, and work heretofore done there will be sent here. THE SENTINEL was the first paper to interpose an objection to these frequent labor strikes and the result is a peaceable solution of the difficulties and an unprecedented boom for Fort Wayne. The Wabash employees say to agitators "Let well enough alone."

THE BAPTISTS.

About Three Hundred Expected to Ferguson Station.

Notwithstanding the very threatening weather of yesterday and last evening, about three hundred people accompanied the Young People's Baptist society to Ferguson's station, the Muncie train leaving at 7:30. Arriving at their destination the beautiful mansion of Mr. Ferguson was seen a quarter of a mile distant lighted from cellar to cupola, and Chinese lanterns of every color were swinging from the trees on the lawn and the portico and verandahs of the house. In the new barn were arranged the tables, and a lurid glare from locomotive headlights illumined the appetizing scene. The festivities were prolonged until the midnight hour, when the engine sounded a shrill warning whistle beckoning the crowd homeward. The Bloomingdale depot was reached at 12:20 without any accident or incident to mar the happiness of the event. The society has undoubtedly netted a handsome sum, while the generous and genial Ferguson family have earned the lasting gratitude of the hundreds of their grateful beneficiaries of last evening. A large number of the rural beauty and chivalry of Pleasant and contiguous townships added their welcome presence to the gathering, and did much to enliven things generally. It was noticed with much regret that a few of the jolliest of the intended pilgrims, in order to "avoid the rush" at the north depot tarried too long and were left behind.

The Great Military Encampment.

There was a meeting of business men at the superior court room last night to promote the interests of the forthcoming military encampment. Mayor Muller presided and Allen H. Douglass was secretary. Hanna, Chas. Nathan, Captains James Harper and Scott Swann. They were empowered to appoint such sub-committees as they deem necessary to do other work. The success of the reunion is assured.

PURE HOME COMFORTS.

A Hotel Which Combines Hospitality at Reasonable Rates With First Class Conveniences.

The city press have occasionally had occasion to commend the entrance of the Heekin house into the list of first class hotels where home-like comfort is ensured to the boarders and a general hospitality is extended to all comers. Mr. James Wilkinson, the genial landlord, is a most liberal provider. Nobody goes away from the Heekin with any feeling but kindness towards excellent landlord and he finds polite attention to the wants of his customers fills his large house while other hotels are almost deserted.

This favorite house is centrally located and convenient to the wholesale and retail centers of trade, and between the north and south depots. Its rooms are large, airy and well kept and the appointments throughout the house have been made most excellent. The table is most satisfactory. A feature of the house, not found at any other hotel in the city, is a livery stable, equipped with excellent roadsters, carriages and road wagons and every vehicle needed by patrons of the house. The recent improvements are made at considerable expense and are more than warranted by the steady increase of business. THE SENTINEL heartily recommends the Heekin to the traveling public. Family apartments may be had at special rates and the hotel office may be reached by telegraph or telephone. The landlord gives every detail of the large establishment his personal supervision.

Petoskey Fish. R. Connable & Son, proprietors of the well-known Petoskey fisheries have opened a fish house at No. 517 East Main street. Telephone No. 217 for fresh Petoskey white fish and trout.
